

---

“RAISE THE BAR” COACH FEES, TRAVEL AND EXPENSES

All coaching fees (<http://www.sportscoachuk.org/sites/default/files/Sports-Coaching-in-the-UK-III.pdf>) will be invoiced to the club.

All competitors will pay their own competition entry fee and any other fee associated with each competition.

There coaching fees will be charged for any additional coaching sessions leading up to competition and Practice.

Competitive weightlifters' families and adult lifters themselves are expected to pay for a coach's food, drinks, travel, and hotel costs. All lifters are to pay coach's expenses and fees.

If a coach takes several weightlifters to a competition, the coach's total expenses may be split his or her expense all competitors.

If a coach takes only one weightlifter to a competition, the weightlifter's family is expected to pay for all of his or her coach's expenses which may include a round-trip plane flight, a rental car, and several days in a hotel, and meals.

---

Competitive weightlifters' families and adult lifters themselves are expected to pay for a coach's food, travel, and hotel costs. All lifters are to pay coach's expenses and fees

If a coach takes several weightlifters to a competition, the coach's total expenses may be split his or her expense all competitors.

If a coach takes only one weightlifter to a competition, the weightlifter's family is expected to pay for all of his or her coach's expenses which may include a round-trip plane flight, a rental car, and several days in a hotel, and meals.